

A Personal Note

At Desert Pulse Tours and Safaris cc, every journey is thoughtfully curated in partnership with lodges and camps that reflect exceptional service, authenticity, and genuine African hospitality.

While gratuities are never expected, they are often appreciated as a meaningful gesture of recognition for those who quietly shape your experience—both behind the scenes and in the field.

This guide is informed by our close relationships across Namibia, Botswana, and Southern Africa, allowing you to move through your journey with confidence, ease, and discretion.
